

Easter Edition

Egg-Themed Booklist

Book Title	Author	Guiding Notes	Grades
The Great Big Easter Egg Hun 	Beatrix Potter	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Read-aloud picture book</li> <li>2. Best for young children</li> <li>3. Flaps lift to find the eggs throughout the storyline</li> <li>1. Featuring Peter Rabbit</li> </ol>	K-1
The Easter Egg 	Jan Brett	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Read-aloud picture book</li> <li>2. Board book format for young children</li> <li>2. Story about kindness to others</li> </ol>	K-2
If an Egg Hatches 	Blake Hoena	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>3. Illustrated information text</li> <li>4. Colorful photos with interesting facts and predictions</li> <li>5. Children's questions are great for a mini-lesson</li> </ol>	K-2
Shake a Leg, Egg! 	Kurt Cyrus	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Illustrated fiction</li> <li>2. Waiting for baby goose to watch and see the world that awaits it</li> <li>3. Anticipation of a new sibling</li> </ol>	K-2

The Easter Egg Artists 	Adrienne Adams	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Read-aloud picture book</li> <li>2. About a bunny family who paints Easter eggs for a living</li> <li>1. A story about working together</li> </ol>	K-3
Bears Don't Eat Egg Sandwiches 	Julie Fulton	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>2. Illustrated fiction</li> <li>3. A book about hospitality towards guests</li> <li>4. Funny story, great for a read aloud</li> <li>5. Jack loves egg sandwiches and meets a bear who does not eat them</li> </ol>	K-3
The Egg 	M.P. Robertson	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Illustrated fiction</li> <li>2. George finds a large mysterious egg in the chicken coop</li> <li>3. The egg hatches as a dragon, which he now has to take care of</li> <li>4. Teaches him how to fly, breathe fire, and defeat knights</li> </ol>	K-3
An Egg is Quiet 	Dianna Hutts Aston	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Illustrated information text</li> <li>2. Takes the audience through the world of eggs</li> <li>3. Many interesting facts to spark imagination</li> <li>5. Great for extended science or literacy activities</li> </ol>	K-3

Feel Like Eggs? Introducing Children to a Dozen Emotions 	Jeff Goodman	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Illustrated fiction</li> <li>2. Eggs express their feelings through a dozen dishes</li> <li>3. Rhyming book</li> <li>4. Discusses emotional intelligence</li> <li>5. Helps children find ways to name and express their emotions</li> </ol>	K-3
First the Egg 	Laura Seeger	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Illustrated fiction</li> <li>2. Simplifies the age-old question, which came first – the chicken or the egg?</li> <li>3. Beautiful illustrations</li> <li>4. From an egg to a chicken, this book comes full circle with a “before and after” theme</li> <li>5. Reinforces science concepts, including life cycles</li> </ol>	K-3
I SPY an in a Nest 	Jean Marzollo	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Illustrated interactive book</li> <li>2. Best for young readers (Scholastic Reader – Level 1)</li> <li>1. Spring themed search-and-find activity pages</li> </ol>	K-2
Green Eggs and Ham 	Dr Seuss	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>2. Illustrated fiction</li> <li>3. Classic-children’s book</li> <li>4. Rhyming style</li> <li>5. Excellent read-aloud</li> </ol>	K-3

The Runaway Egg 	Katy Hudson	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Illustrated fiction</li> <li>2. Comical theme follows a chick and his un-hatched brother</li> <li>3. The runaway egg brother creates quite an adventure</li> </ol>	K-3
Who Hatched the Egg 	Tish Rabe	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Dr. Seuss style</li> <li>2. Illustrated information text with some story element</li> <li>3. Discusses incubating chicken eggs until they hatch</li> <li>4. Glossary included</li> </ol>	K-4
Egg: Nature's Perfect Package 	Steve Jenkins	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Illustrated information text</li> <li>2. Excellent read-aloud</li> <li>3. Discusses animal survival and adaptation</li> <li>4. Lists animals that lay eggs</li> <li>5. Life cycle of predator and prey</li> <li>6. Glossary included</li> </ol>	K-5
The Good Egg 	Jory John	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Illustrated fiction</li> <li>2. Perfect read-aloud</li> <li>3. The "Good Egg" always does the right thing, even when his siblings behave less than "good"</li> <li>4. Good Egg cracks under the pressure of always having to be Grade-A perfect</li> <li>5. Good Egg learns perfection is not achievable</li> </ol>	K-6

How to Catch the Easter Bunny 	Adam Wallace	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Read-aloud picture book</li> <li>2. The Easter bunny hides and escapes tricks along his way to delivering treats</li> </ol>	2-4
The Berenstain Bears and the Real Easter Eggs 	Stan Berenstain	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Illustrated picture book</li> <li>2. Classic children's book series</li> <li>1. A story about celebrating Easter discussing the beauty of nature</li> </ol>	2-4
The Good Egg and the Talent Show 	Jory John	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>2. Independent reading</li> <li>3. Level 1 – "I Can Read" book</li> <li>4. Part of the "Good Egg" series</li> <li>5. Simple and short sentences</li> <li>6. Discusses being yourself and being kind to others</li> </ol>	K-6
The Great Eggscaper! 	Jory John	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Illustrated fiction</li> <li>2. Sequel to "The Good Egg"</li> <li>3. Good egg and his friend escape the carton and adventure through the grocery store</li> <li>4. Playful theme</li> <li>5. Discusses feelings of worry, anxiety, a quest to finding friends</li> </ol>	K-6

P. Zonka Lays an Egg 	Julie Paschkis	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Illustrated fiction</li> <li>2. Easter theme with Ukrainian imagery</li> <li>3. When one of the chickens can't lay eggs, the others give her a difficult time</li> <li>4. Beautiful imagery</li> </ol>	K-6
An Extraordinary Egg 	Leo Lionni	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Illustrated fiction</li> <li>2. Three frogs discover what they think is a chicken egg; they've never seen one before</li> <li>3. When a long, scaly creature comes out, they naturally call it a chicken</li> <li>4. Great for classifying species in science</li> <li>5. Great for independent reading</li> </ol>	1-3
A Skunk and Badger Story: Egg Marks the Spot 	Amy Timberlake	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Popular fiction series</li> <li>2. Treasure hunt leads to a camp site while meeting a chicken along the way</li> <li>3. The characters care for a dinosaur egg</li> <li>6. Themed around spending time with loved ones through a sense of adventure</li> </ol>	2-5
The Egg 	Britta Teckentrup	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Non-fiction</li> <li>2. Interesting facts about eggs</li> <li>3. Beautiful illustrations</li> <li>4. All types of birds and the eggs they lay</li> <li>4. Best for older children</li> </ol>	4-8

Shai &amp; Emmie Star in Break An Egg! 	Quvenzhané Wallis	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Independent reading</li> <li>2. Less about eggs, but a lot of food themes</li> <li>3. A story about best friends who love acting</li> <li>4. The expression “Break an Egg” is used by friends Shai and Emmie to wish each other good luck during performances</li> </ol>	3-6
Eggs 	Jerry Spinelli	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Young adult novel</li> <li>2. About lonely friends who come together</li> <li>3. Relation to eggs: everybody likes eggs – it is a way to connect and celebrate what we have in common</li> <li>4. Discussion guide available at the back of the book</li> </ol>	7-8