

QTS reopening January 2022

Egg Farmers of Ontario is pleased to announce that, beginning with the first QTS session in 2022, the Quota Transfer System will be opening up to new egg farmers. The QTS has been closed to new entrants since May 2019 to allow for its current new egg farmers to purchase sufficient quota for a viable laying operation.

Potential new egg farmers are forewarned that quota has historically been in short supply with significant demand and therefore there is no guarantee of the number of quota units available for purchase each session. Historically, the average number of quota units available for purchase has been low and it may take several sessions to accumulate enough quota units to run a sustainable farming operation. Note also that the Layer Leasing Program has been cancelled, so access to additional birds is limited to current EFO programs.

Further detail on the number of quota units available for purchase in QT-1-22 will be posted on our website – getcracking.ca after the Sell Bid deadline of January 13, 2022. At that time, the following documents will be required to purchase quota:

- Form 2-4, Buy Bid Form
- Legal Opinion and property deed
