

Councillor Representation

1. On or before March 1st in each year,
 - a. the egg farmers in each zone shall elect, from among themselves, their Councillors; and
 - b. the pullet farmers in each zone shall elect, from among themselves, their Councillors.
2. Egg & Pullet Councillors hold office from the 1st day of March in each year.
3. The term of office for Egg & Pullet Councillors expires on the last day of February of the year next following the year in which they were elected.
4. A quota holder that is not an individual may designate an individual as a representative for the purpose of Councillor representation.
5. The number of Egg Councillors to be elected in a zone shall be determined in accordance with the following rules:
 - [1] For each zone in which there is at least one [1] but not more than five [5] egg quota holders, there shall be one [1] Egg Councillor.
 - [2] For each zone in which the number of egg quota holders is greater than five [5], there shall be one [1] Egg Councillor for every five [5] egg quota holders, as well as any additional Egg Councillors provided for by paragraph 3.
 - [3] For each zone to which paragraph 2 applies in which the number of egg quota holders is not evenly divisible by five, there shall be one additional Egg Councillor for each additional three or four egg quota holders.
6. The number of Pullet Councillors to be elected in a zone shall be determined in accordance with the following rules:
 - [1] For each zone in which there is at least one [1] but not more than ten [10] pullet quota holders, there shall be one Pullet Councillor.
 - [2] For each zone in which the number of pullet quota holders is greater than ten [10], there shall be one [1] Pullet Councillor for every ten [10] pullet quota holders, as well as any additional Pullet Councillors provided for by paragraph 3.
 - [3] For each zone to which paragraph 2 applies in which the number of pullet quota holders is not evenly divisible by 10, there shall be one additional Pullet Councillor for each additional five, six, seven, eight or nine pullet quota holders.
7. Zone Delegates in the numbers for each zone as determined by the Ratio Schedule shall be elected for the same term as Councillors for the purpose of attending at the AGM and the Egg and Pullet Farmers Workshop as non-voting delegates entitled to expenses accordingly.
